EXPECTATIONS REGARDING REMOTE LEARNING

Dear Parent

11/01/20

To receive a 'present' mark, your child has to be seen to be engaging with remote learning. This can be evidenced by uploading work to the home learning portal, by engaging in zoom lessons or by returning completed work as you collect the next work pack. If there is no evidence of any of these taking place then your child will be marked with an 'at home but not engaging with remote learning code' which by all intents and purposes is an absent mark.

Your child's teacher will have laid out what they expect to receive, either digitally or as a return of paper copies. There may be some instances where they have indicated that not every piece of work completed needs to be uploaded to the home learning portal. Some may have highlighted specific pieces of work that they really need to see, to gauge your child's progress and plan for further lessons. Please follow these instructions, to ensure your child is maximizing the benefit of online learning.

You have access to your child's class teacher through the home learning portal and by email. Please do not expect the class teacher to be available to mark work and comment or answer queries before 9.00am or after 4.00 pm or at weekends. Remember they have a home life and some are dealing with homeschooling and childcare just like you. They are also helping with 'childcare' in the school building. Work will be marked and comments returned in a timely fashion.

I am here to deal with any serious problems at d winters565@c2kni.net - should you have a query please email rather than message via facebook as I only have time to check messages there occasionally.

Yours sincerely

Donna Winters
